Conditions of sale.

(1) The purchaser should remit to the nearest Treasury ¼ value of the timber purchased by him within five days from the date of sale. Failing this the timber purchased will be resold at the risk of the defaulting bidder. If any loss results in such resale, the defaulting bidder will have to make it good but he will not have any claim for any profit that may accrue from such resale.

(2) The ¾ value of the purchase should be remitted within 30 days from the date of sale. Failing which the ¼ value already paid will be forfeited to Government and the lot resold at the risk of the defaulting bidder as per para (1) supra.

(3) No purchaser should remove any logs from the depot-yard until he has paid for them in full and has obtained a permit for such removal.

(4) If timber purchased in the above sale is left unremoved from the depot-yard within 90 days from the date of sale, the purchaser should pay interest at 12 per cent from the date of sale, on the total value of his purchase.

M. G. RAMA RAO,
District Forest Officer.

MYSORE DISTRICT.

Notification dated 24th April 1911.

1. The right to collect tolls at the toll-gates specified in Schedule A, from the 1st July 1911 to the 30th June 1912, will be sold by public auction at the places noted opposite to each, by the Deputy Commissioner or any other officer deputed for the purpose, on the dates noted therein.

2. The contractors who purchase the right must collect tolls at the rates mentioned in Schedule B, both on in-coming and out-going traffic and at no higher rates.

3. The Deputy Commissioner reserves to himself the power of refusing or accepting the highest or any bid that may be offered.

4. The contract amount is payable in twelve equal monthly instalments due on or before the 10th of the following month. The contractor shall pay, as soon as the sale is over, a deposit equal to two months' instalments for the due performance of the contract. The amount in deposit will, if the conditions of the contract are complied with, be credited towards the instalments due for the last two months of the contract.

5. If the deposit is not made immediately after the close of the sale, the contract will be resold at the risk of the approved bidder. If default is made in the payment of the instalments, interest at one pie per rupee per month will be levied till the date of payment, and the unexpired portion of the contract will also be liable to be sold at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner, and the deficit will be recovered from the contractor, who shall not be entitled to the profits, if any.
